What to Bring: Passport so you can visit la Cooperativa de la Frontera in Palomas, Mexico (our justice and compassion mission), comfortable clothes, walking shoes, journal, chocolate, personal items, sleeping bag if you are staying at the chapel, prayers, icons, spiritual readings from your tradition that you may wish to share, musical instruments, healthy snacks to share, your favorite tea or coffee to share, did I mention chocolate (!), anything else that you may need. We are 30 miles from the nearest pharmacy, or hospital (Deming).

Housing: Overnight accommodations at Compassion House are limited to a queen room, a single bed in the chapel, and a single bed in the Poustinia, although there is space for R.V. or trailer camping, tenting, or sleeping bags on the floor in the chapel. A B&B and a small Motel are within 6 blocks of the Retreat Center, and costs $40-$50 a night: Martha's Place B&B - 575-531-2467 and La Hacienda De Villa Motel - 575-531-1000.

Fees: An individual retreat with room and board at the Center costs $45 a night. Group retreat costs vary, and scholarship are available for most events. Material fees for the art retreats are separate. Donations are gladly accepted.
